

*DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE TASK FORCE
ON THE CARE, MANAGEMENT, AND TRANSITION OF RECOVERING WOUNDED, ILL, AND INJURED MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES*

John Heggstad

Budget Analyst

John Heggstad is responsible for overseeing and managing the Task Force budget and expenses. This includes monitoring use of the Government Purchase Card. He is also responsible for supply management and organizes documents, presentations, and meeting contents for the Task Force website under FACA database. He also helps coordinate all supplies pertaining to the Task Force, assists with GSA orders for supplies, and arranges for delivery of supplies.

Before joining the Task Force, Mr. Heggstad had a 24 year career in the Federal government. He was in the Federal Budgeting and the Federal Accounting Series while working in various positions for the U. S. Navy, DFAS (Defense Finance and Accounting Service), and the U. S. Marine Corps. This work involved the monitoring of government purchase card use, managerial accounting, and managing bill paying.

Mr. Heggstad has a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Minnesota, and additional course work at George Washington University, the University of Virginia, and George Mason University. He also served in the United States Navy, reaching the grade of E-5.
