

*DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE TASK FORCE
ON THE CARE, MANAGEMENT, AND TRANSITION OF RECOVERING WOUNDED, ILL, AND INJURED MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES*

Karen Wessels, MA

Associate

Ms. Karen Wessels has over six years of experience in survey research, including methodological design; survey development; data collection, analysis, and interpretation; and reporting of findings and conclusions. Ms. Wessels has managed numerous survey research projects, and has extensive experience writing reports, and presenting research findings to decision makers. Before joining ICF International, she was a Survey Research Psychologist at Defense Manpower Data Center where she managed numerous survey research projects, including the Status of Forces Survey of DoD Civilian Employees and the Status of Forces Survey of Active Duty Members, both on-going attitudinal surveys of the military, and conducted ad-hoc statistical analyses and follow-up research. Ms. Wessels received a Bachelor of Science in Business Marketing from the University of Florida and a Master of Arts in Industrial/Organizational Psychology from George Mason University.
