Lilian VanderStaay

Research Associate

Lilian VanderStaay, of ICF International, provides research assistance to the Task Force research team. A 2012 graduate of Carleton College, she majored in History. In her time at ICF, Ms. VanderStaay has largely focused on supporting projects for the Center for Army Leadership (CAL) and the Department of Veteran's Administration (VA). For example, Ms. VanderStaay helped develop and update the Multi-Source and Assessment Feedback (MSAF) Coaching Certification Course for the U.S Army. The course was delivered by subject matter experts to nineteen Army leaders for coaching certification, and continues to be delivered as needed to additional Army leaders.
