

*DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE TASK FORCE
ON THE CARE, MANAGEMENT, AND TRANSITION OF RECOVERING WOUNDED, ILL, AND INJURED MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES*

Michael Inman
Research Analyst

Michael Inman, of ICF International, provides research assistance to the Task Force research team. He has several years of experience conducting social science research for military clients. While at ICF International, Mr. Inman has provided research support for the Defense Department Advisory Committee on Women in the Services, visiting numerous military installations to collect focus group data on topics such as women's healthcare in deployed environments, sexual assault, and sexual harassment. Recently, he has also prepared 360-degree leader evaluation reports for the Army's Multi-Source Assessment and Feedback (MSAF) Program, and helped administer one of the military's largest behavioral health surveys, the DoD Survey of Health-Related Behaviors. Mr. Inman graduated from Grinnell College in 2009 with a B.A. in psychology.
